Sen. Rodríguez and Ventanas de Socorro partner in free memory screenings event

El Paso— Senator José Rodríguez, in partnership with Ventanas de Socorro, will offer free memory screenings on May 20 and May 21 as part of the Alzheimer’s Foundation of America’s National Memory Screening Program (AFA). AFA’s National Memory Screening Program provides free, confidential memory screenings to individuals who are concerned about memory problems or who want to check their memory now for future comparisons. Qualified healthcare professionals will administer the face-to-face memory screening, which lasts approximately 10 minutes and consists of a series of questions and tasks designed to gauge memory, language skills and other intellectual functions.
