Message:

Each and every Texan constitutionally deserves fair representation. Many of us pay more than our fair share of taxes yet we are not fairly represented. I'm fed up with it! If you have to strategically maneuver lines to create districts that help your party to the extent that they resemble shapes enviable of modern art you are not a real Texan. You are a cheater. In Aggieland, where I come from, we say an Aggie never lies, steal, cheat, or tolerate those who do. Many of you are doing all three and the Lord will judge you one day. The entire country knows what you are doing yet you don't care. Your loyalty is with your party, not Texas.
The population of Texas will continue to grow as well as its makeup. You can't stop it.
There will come a time when you can no longer draw your way in to power.
