Message:

The proposed Senate District 10, in which I reside, is being torn apart so the urban voices of Tarrant County citizens, many of whom are non-white, will be drowned out by the white, suburban/rural voices of Johnson and Parker County citizens. For years Senate District 10 has been a competitive district so any representative would have to meet the needs of both political parties. And it represented interests of urban Tarrant County, which are vastly different than the interests of Johnson and Parker Counties. It's apparent the new district was designed for State Representative Phil King, who has announced his candidacy even before the district boundaries are finalized. Meanwhile no Hispanic district senate district is proposed for Tarrant County even though much of the population growth in Tarrant County was Hispanic.
