Regarding: Senate

Message:

As a more than 40 year resident of Montgomery County, all of which has been spent on the same road, I do not consent to the changing of my senate district.

I have lived here all of my adult life, I know those who represent me, and I have no desire to be drawn into the mess of Harris county. I have worked many years in both Montgomery and Harris counties and they are vastly different in mindset, moral beliefs, religious beliefs, and in most other aspects. The inclusion of Montgomery county into a district primarily controlled by Harris county would cause undue disparity in the representation of the citizens of Montgomery county by those with very dissimilar characteristics and beliefs.

I do not wish to have any representation by a primarily Harris county senator and do not want their beliefs, morals, and mindset representing my family.
