Message:

Due to Covid-19 the world has changed and so many families around the world and within the USA have been impacted with hardships and yet so many politicians have yet to learn their lessons.

Every elected officials needs to remember that they are serving their constituents and decided to represent them all. Fair maps is critical to have a balanced government.

No one should ever forget that their is a higher power watching on every action and intention we make. So please have the integrity to work towards redistricting accordingly to fairness and inclusion of all residents.
