Message:

Thank you for the time and effort you are putting into this very important task.

Please, keep in mind as you work that the Texas and US legislative bodies should be a reflection of the US and Texas population. Percentages of ethnic and economic groups in each legislative body should match the percentages of ethnic and economic groups in the population as a whole.

The major effort put into redistricting should be centered on making our legislative bodies a true reflection of the rich diversity Americans pride themselves to be.
