Message:

Please do not continue to draw lines in the state to favor one party. The first map draft released this week leaves out minorities in some communities, like in the district represented by Rep. Chip Roy, where the population grew.

It definitely is marginalizing people of color who are the ones who are basically driving Texas population growth and also driving the Texas economy and everything from education to to infrastructure. It is not fair...and I am Caucasian and I know it is not fair.

I have been Republican all my life (and I am 66 years old now). I have been sooo disappointed in the Republican party and now vote Democratic. The Republicans have become a party of hate of minorities, untruthful and lies (Trump), and not a party of "life".
