Message:

If the current maps are implemented, the concept of representational government will be undermined in such a manner that my personal understanding of and confidence in American Democracy will be destroyed. Tornadoes and hurricanes, fires and pandemics have made it abundantly clear that we rely on our neighbors for our wellbeing. Those neighbors may have been born in a different country. Those neighbors may have been born a different color. Those neighbors may have been born a different gender. those neighbors may have been born into a different faith tradition. But God created the heaven and the earth, God created every living being with inherent dignity and purpose. If you. believe that - ask yourself this question: who do I depend on to uphold my inherent dignity and worth? It is God?Is it someone who might have an ulterior motive?
