Message:

Texas has been controlled by the Republican for years! Texas remains broken, how are you justifying this redistricting, and showing your weakness. I am a proud native Texan who is utterly embarrassed by how our so called Governor is bending the knee to the worst US administration in history. Texas was such a great state and had now become an embarrassment and only serving those that do nothing for Texas. We have had the electric grid fail, numerous mass shootings, and now horrible flooding. Let's stick to priorities and not gerrymandering. Let's do better Texas.
