Message:

It's been abundantly clear that this redistricting was made to secure a Republican majority. However, states like Michigan and Wisconsin also redistricted and were met with opposition from the people and organizations. The politicians that supported the redistricting risked their chances of securing a seat in their state legislature. It's no secret that Texas loves to redistrict for the sole purpose of securing more republican votes, however, you can only redistrict so much until it backfires on you.
