Message:

I urge you to oppose any redistricting of Texas's congressional districts at this time. This proposed redistricting is unnecessary, politically driven, and lacks broad public support. A clear majority of Texans are against it, viewing it as a partisan effort rather than a response to legitimate need. Pushing forward risks significant public backlash, potential legal challenges that have plagued past maps, and diverts focus from critical state priorities. Maintaining the current districts demonstrates respect for the electorate and avoids further politicization of our electoral maps. Prioritize stability and the public trust over partisan gain.
