Regarding: Congressional

Message:

I strongly disagree with the redistricting considered in SB4, on the grounds that it strives to diminish Democratic votes in the state.

Voting should be a fair and equitable process, not constrained by Gerrymandered districts. Congressmen and women in a democracy should hear and experience two sides of the many issues that impact us all. If Republicans want to prevail, they can make their best case on issues and let all of the voters decide.

Remember, Democrats can contort rules to advantage their party just as easily as Republicans can, once Democrats are in the majority.
