Message:

This manipulation of districts to break up more urban and left leaning votes. At its core, the gerrymandering is the play of any political party, however, this maneuver has been primarily used by the Republican Party to strengthen their presence in both local and national arenas. As mentioned, this is purely political, and has no logical merit. Lines are now being drawn to split major cities, lower income communities, and large counties such as Harris County. This plan of redistricting now should be combining the communities, cities, and counties along their official boundaries.
