Regarding: Congressional

Message:

As a Texas citizen, I have a right to my vote. Redistricting Texas is a futile attempt to redraw congressional districts that are left leaning to be more right leaning. This is unconstitutional. Per the typical redistricting guidelines, most states' maps are redrawn every ten years. The redistricting of Texas is not in line with this guideline. I do not want the congressional districts redrawn. Leave Texas as is and let the people vote!
