Message:

I'm writing this because I don't agree with what's happening around the redistricting. It really feels like the goal is to silence Democratic voters, and that's not okay.

I personally vote based on who I feel represents my community and values, and I don't think it's fair for politicians to redraw lines in a way that benefits one side and shuts out the other. That's not what democracy should be.

I just want everyone's vote to count equally—Republican, Democrat, independent, whatever. We all deserve to be represented fairly, not divided up so certain voices lose power. Please consider how these maps will affect real people and not just political outcomes.
