Message:

Redistricting should be about fair representation, not preserving power. Any attempt to redraw the lines in ways that dilute the voices of communities , suppress young and working-class voters, or rig the process to favor incumbents is a direct attack on democracy.

Texans deserve maps that reflect our real communities, not political calculations. We deserve transparency, public input, and fairness.

I'm urging our leaders: Vote NO to any redistricting plan that puts power over people. Let's build a Texas where every voice counts equally.
