Message:

If you're more worried about winning the next election by any means necessary than you are democracy itself, then it seems that "public servant" has come to mean "self servant". Is this what you got into politics for? To disenfranchise your electorate? This should be a vote on ENDING gerrymandering, not using it in excess.

I hope you find what bravery is left inside of you to do the right thing. DO NOT allow this redistricting measure to go through. Democracy and Texas would thank you for it.
