Hello. I do not agree with the senates redistricting plan. Any redistricting plan should be done apolitically to not be biased for both Republicans and Democrats. Additionally, it is ridiculous that a district would stretch from the border of Oklahoma's panhandle to Houston. A district should represent people as a community, not numbers or percentages. Please reconsider these plans and make a Texas that represents everyone, not 50%. As a future Texan voter, I would like to feel the power of my vote impact my area.
