Message:

I'm urging you to reject any redistricting plan that is clearly designed to entrench partisan power instead of reflecting the will of the people. Gerrymandering undermines our democracy by allowing politicians to choose their voters, rather than voters choosing their representatives. Texas is a diverse and growing state, and our districts should reflect that—not silence communities of color or dilute opposing voices.

I'm watching this process closely, as are many Texans who believe in fair representation. I ask you to put integrity above party politics and support an independent redistricting process that ensures every Texan's vote counts equally.
