Message:

As a Texan I find it insulting to be redistricting when not a census a year. It stinks of desperation and to be frank should be a crime. Any party that does it in this manor mid census is frankly stealing seats and as a Texan I find this highly insulting and you should to. If Texas continues on this path it will be the wild west all over again and you will lose.

PS please don't ban THC it is none of your business what we do. You need to get out of our personal lives. Texans stand for Freedom not a nanny state! These politicians need to listen to their constituents and not void their wishes. It appears the billionaires controls them all and their day will come.....The people will be free!
