Message:

Governor Abbott is reconvening the Texas legislature for a special session to redraw the Texas congressional map on a non-census year is wrong. Republicans drew the current congressional map in 2021 and they should not be allowed to adjust it whenever they choose. President Trump's threats should not be allowed to influence Texas politics. Texas is a great state full of many different people with different ideas. Each of these should be allowed to be considered equally and not gerrymandered out of existence. Please say NO to redrawing the Texas congressional map.
