Message:

This blatant attempt at partisan gerrymandering is disgraceful. The representatives of Texans should focus on improving our state, not pandering to Trump. Our state needs to improve its schools, roads, and electrical grid. Please focus your attention on the everyday issues that impact Texans. Redrawing the Congressional maps to punish one party is counter to the principles of republicanism and democracy. My vote should count the same as everyone else's; it should not be silenced based on where I live. If Republicans want more seats in the House, they should focus on appealing to more people, not grabbing seats through gerrymandering. Let's support the diversity of opinions that make Texas great, not water down their influence through partisan gerrymandering.
