What goes around comes around. You are obviously not thinking clearly. You are REACTING out of HATE, not logic, necessity, common sense, or necessity. You don't do this to people because you are a Republican, or a Democrat or an Independent. I've never decided anything based on political party. I am educated, a former military officer, a federal employee and a lawyer. None of what you do is within my code of ethics or the oaths that I have taken. Have you taken the oath? Power does not last forever, and for sure should not rule your thinking or your life. The shoe will be on the other foot soon, so all for naught. Learn to live together, do good for many, not the few who you think look like you, feel like you or act like you do. Read the Constitution, the guiding document. Let common sense determine your actions. After all, what is it that you are so afraid of? The only thing you have accomplished is raising the level of anxiety and anger in the populace of America. It is not just Texas. It's a big world and your sites are too small, too distorted to serve for any length of time. Always remember to check 6.
