Message:

This redistricting attempt is blatantly un-Democratic. Republicans have had a stranglehold on this state for 30 years and in that time we have seen that the party doesn't care about children, women, or education, or equality amongst citizens. I guess it should come as no surprise that Republicans don't care about democracy either. When it's clear you will have trouble winning on the strength of your ideas, you simply change the rules.

I object to my voice and my vote being cracked and packed out of existence. Abbot and his wretched party should abandon this attempt and institute a non-partisan redistricting board. If you can't wait for the next census, have a non-partisan board draw the maps. Unfortunately, we know Texas Republicans are allergic to the concept of "fair."
