I am appalled by the power grab this Texas legislature is trying to do. Senate Bill 4 is absolutely unnecessary and not wanted by the majority of Texas citizens. Redistricting happens every to the nearest it does not need to happen now no one needs this. As well the maps are just a way for Republicans to grab more power. If Republicans have to cheat to maintain their power in Texas then maybe they're not doing the right thing. This bill is absolutely horrendous for the citizens of Texas especially for those that are not white. If you actually work for the entire state of Texas and all of its citizens I urge you to not pass this bill. Again it is a power grab and it is a way of cheating it is not the way our democracy works. And again it is not what the majority of voters want. Vote no
