Message:

I strongly oppose this shameless redistricting effort, which is nothing more than a calculated power grab designed to manipulate elections and silence voters. This isn't about fair representation—it's about protecting political power at the expense of democracy. Let me be clear: you were elected to represent your constituents, not Donald Trump. The people in your district deserve fair maps and a voice that actually counts—not one buried under partisan gerrymandering. If your ideas can't win on their own merit, then maybe the problem is your policies—not the voters. Stop catering to one man's ego and start doing your job: representing the people who voted for you!
