I have reached the end of my patience with the state of politics in my country., and most importantly, my state and county. This redistricting plan is so obviously the way Texas Republicans plan to earn points with Donald J Trump, help him continue to diminish our 250 year democracy, and keep themselves in power. As an independent voter who can no longer vote for a Republican Party I do not recognize, I am done worrying and fretting. Starting today, I will take action. I will get vocal. I will get involved and speak out. I will not continue to stand by and hope that integrity and this travesty continue.

I am asking for Republicans, some who I've supported, to reject this charade. We just redistricted 4 years ago. Just look at the shape of Dan Crenshaw's district. It's a huge horse shoe. That makes no sense and looks very much drawn around racial and economic boundaries.

We are better than this.
