Message:

I must express my profound disagreement with the fact that, ONCE AGAIN, we are trying to silence the voices of the people who are DIRECTLY affected in these districts. This is not about anything else other than RACISM. This is the beginning of the end. If the state of Texas goes through with this, the damage will be irreparable and felt for generations to come. Abbott has to go; it's time. No one man should remain in power for that long. He knows Texans don't want him anymore, so they are doing what they do best—rigging the election in any way they can. This will have a far greater effect than they could ever imagine. Republicans are scared because they know they have to continue to bend the rules to remain in power. I consider this approach to be both misguided and detrimental.
