Message:

I am writing to express my deep opposition to the current redistricting plans. This is blatant gerrymandering, in an attempt by state leadership to rig future elections in favor of Republican candidates. This process is being conducted outside of the normal schedule, and there is no impetus for doing so, other than the directive of the president to ensure that he maintains and grows his power. This new map does not reflect the make-up of the people of Texas and should be abandoned.
