Message:

As a lifelong resident of Texas, I firmly oppose any redistricting efforts in Texas that aim to silence or diminish the voices, input, and votes, of Democratic voters.

Gerrymandering, in ANY form, is a practice that wholly undermines democratic process. It manipulates boundaries to favor one party, often discriminating against and diluting the power of communities of color, poverty, young voters, and working class Texans, ALL of whom deserve equal representation.

Every vote should carry the same weight. Every citizen should have an equal opportunity to elect leaders who reflect their values and needs.

When districts are redrawn with partisan motives, it erodes public trust in our institutions, discourages civic engagement, and weakens the very foundation of democracy. Texas is and always has been a diverse and rapidly growing state, and our political representation should reflect that. Any attempt to redraw district lines in a way that disproportionately silences Democratic voices is not just unjust, it is Un-AMERICAN.

We must demand a fair redistricting process that is inclusive, transparent, and accountable to the people. Representation should not be a privilege reserved for the rich and powerful. It is a right that should be guaranteed to all Texas, regardless of political affiliation.

Respectfully,
Ericka Jarman
