Message:

This Republican redistricting effort is such a political dog and pony show. I would rather see your special session going to determine the best use of the Texas Rainy Day Fund to help the survivors of the Independence Day floods and equip the communities harmed by flood water to rebuild and prevent future loss of life due to similar weather events.

The showboating, bullying, and nonsense regarding redrawing Texas districts is in poor taste considering how many Texans are still suffering and in mourning, and how many of those people you will be disenfranchising by refusing to allow fair and sensible lines to be drawn.

I am disappointed but not surprised that you are debasing yourselves to appease the whims of the fascist bully pedophile in the White House. The citizens of Texas are better than that and deserve better from you.
