Affirm public info: I agree

Regarding: Congressional

Message:

The proposed redistricting maps out of Austin show our Houston district F, my district, being split across four congressional seats.

Alief ISD alone would be divided between TX-07, TX-08, and TX-18, and Briarmeadow would shift from TX-07 to TX-38. That's not just a map change—it's a direct blow to the power of cohesive neighborhoods and majority-minority communities.

Imagine having to engage four different federal representatives after a disaster just to secure resources. That's not only inefficient—it's unacceptable.
