Message:

I think that redistricting in order to scare up 5 more republican seats is a terrible idea. It may not be illegal, but it is definitely unethical. The people who make up the senate were elected to represent the people of Texas and Texans should come first in every decision that is made. Intentionally rearranging the current districts, which are already gerrymandered for maximum republican benefit, in an effort to silence the voices of Texans of color is unacceptable. This is not a matter of democrat vs republican. It's a matter of right vs wrong. And this is wrong. I know it's wrong and you know it's wrong too. We are all Texans together and we are all great - no one is better than anyone else. And we should come first on your list of priorities, not some order from the president. You are essentially selling out your fellow Texans to curry favor with the current president. You are not here to represent his interests. You are here to represent our interests. You are betraying the trust of every Texan by further gerrymandering this state's congressional maps. As Texans, we demand fair representation. We deserve to have representatives who will fight FOR us, not AGAINST us.
