Message:

I strongly oppose any attempts to redraw congressional districts in Texas that prioritize partisan gain over fair representation. Texans deserve districts that reflect the true diversity of our population. NOT gerrymandered lines designed to silence communities of color and entrench political power. Redistricting should be transparent, nonpartisan, and guided by data, not backroom deals. Any map that dilutes voting strength, splits communities, or undermines public trust is an attack on democracy. We must demand maps that ensure every Texan's voice is heard and every vote counts equally.
