Message:

I'm writing to express how angry and disappointed I am with the state of our government. Texas already has some of the most gerrymandered districts I've ever seen. These maps are clearly drawn to protect political power, not to represent the people who live here.

I love Texas. I love the people. But it's clear our government doesn't care about us the way it used to. The only priority seems to be holding on to power, no matter the cost. It's disgraceful, and you should be ashamed.

You've made us feel regret for voting for you. I, along with many of my friends, are done. We're switching to independent because we're sick of being ignored and used.

Texas deserves better.
