As a Texan, I see a diverse range of people and opinions on a daily basis. From the RGV to the panhandle, the piney woods to the scrublands out west, there are more than just republican white people living here.

It is dangerous and irresponsible to redistrict in the way that is being attempted, you have grouped people from suburban Austin with Corpus Christi. These two places are so far away both in physical distance as well as political ideologies. In doing so, you've nullified the voices who go against the republican agenda.

Now Republicans may see this as "winning", but when has America valued winning by changing the rules? Is it so impossible for you to win a midterm that you have to take your ball and go home in order to "win"?

I spit at your pathetic attempts rig elections. I spit on you and your loved ones. May you only know defeat in every election to come. This OBVIOUSLY partisan redistricting is a shameful display by small men too cowardly to grow a spine and fight for what's right. Stop bowing to would-be dictators and maybe come talk to the voters. Maybe you'll regrow some of that humanity.

Oh, and if that's too long and you wanted to just skip to the bottom? Go. Fuck. Your. Self.
