This is a blatant power grab by President Trump. The redistricting, or rather, gerrymandering effort is racist, dishonorable, and embarrassing. As a Texan, I am ceaselessly ashamed that our Governor and Republicans would bend the knee to such obvious corruption.

The districts can be revisited in 2030 after the census is taken, as is the norm. I do not think I need to say more, but to be clear: Texans have a right to choose their representatives. Not the other way around. I thought that was something Texas Republicans understood. But I guess this shows that, yet again, they do not care about Texans, or rather, that they never have.

Kerrville is still recovering and instead of sending additional support, our Republican lawmakers would rather hold that support hostage so they can play Fascists and Robbers. Like children trying to impress a bully so he doesn't hit them, but hits someone else instead.

Texans are not yours to profit from or scapegoat for political power. Our communities are not yours to divide and conquer. We have the right to proper representation. Cease this tired, cartoonish villainy and do your jobs properly.
