This redistricting plan is a shameless power grab plain and simple. I don't care which party this favors. You're overriding the voters—the same party that cries election fraud when things didn't go their way and continue to “advocate” for a free and fair election. It speaks volumes about how you don't care about representation. Your plan is to rig the system. Your goal is re-election. Your purpose is to serve your lord and savior Donald Trump out of fear and self interest.

Communities of color fueled 95% of Texas' growth; these maps dilute their voices and hand disproportionate power to a party that's losing ground. Trump even said, “we are entitled to five more seats.” That's not democracy—that's entitlement to minority rule. This move is anti-voter, anti-democratic, and anti-Texan. I believe deep down, Republicans know this is wrong, and it's high time they grew a spine and actually stand by the “values” they claim to uphold. Otherwise, call yourselves what you really are: Fascists.
