Message:

As a deeply concerned Texan, I strongly oppose any efforts to redraw legislative districts in a manner that undermines fair representation. Gerrymandering directly threatens our democracy's integrity and the fundamental principle of equal voice and vote for every Texan. Redistricting should not be used to consolidate power or silence communities, nor should it serve partisan interests between decennial census cycles. Attempting to redraw districts now, without clear court mandates or sufficient public input, erodes public trust in the government.
