Message:

I am appalled by the power grab Republicans are trying to make in Texas. They are clearly cowards who are afraid to stand up to someone who is hands down the worst president this country has ever had. Their moral turpitude is stunning. Law and order party my ass! Lawlessness and chaos party is far more accurate. Stop the bid to gerrymander state legislatures, put on your big boy pants and start doing what your constituents want. Just ONE public comment session for something of this magnitude is criminal in itself. Too much blowback from voters and you run and hide. Nothing Texas tough there.

With sincere disgust and disdain,

Jennifer Burklow
