Message:

I strongly oppose the current redistricting efforts in Texas. The proposed changes unfairly consolidate all six Four Points precincts under Republican Mike McCaul, despite the fact that our precincts are a mix of blue, purple, and red communities. This manipulation undermines fair representation and dilutes the voice of Democratic voters. Additionally, Travis County's gerrymandering into multiple districts, especially the plan to put Democrats Casar and Doggett in the same district, appears designed to eliminate political competition and suppress voter choice. As a property owner and real estate investor who pays over $100K in property taxes annually, I am appalled that my citizenship and political voice are being stripped away and not properly represented. Fair and transparent redistricting should reflect the true political makeup of our communities, not serve partisan interests. I urge officials to prioritize equitable representation that respects the diverse voices of Texans.

I strongly oppose what is happening and I encourage the Texas Senate to get back to work on flood relief and other actual pressing issues instead of this charade.
