Message:

Redistricting is not something we should be considering right now. Do not do this, I beg of you. This is an over-reach of power and at a time when there are FAR more important things that should be on the agenda. Trying to redistrict off-cadence just shows Republicans in office fear they won't be re-elected. Instead of stealing votes by redistricting, try focusing on things that support the state of Texas and your constituents and earn people's votes.
