Message:

Please do what it takes to ensure our great state remains a voice for the people. This redistricting is completely legal and will better represent how new voters in our areas feel about current politics. Democrats have been gerrymandering for decades in their states but now they are mad when it happens here. You've already proven that several of the new areas actually have a larger number of Hispanic population and still Dems cry wolf. Even the minorities are starting to see which party actually cares about their future. Keep up the good work.
