Message:

I ask our Texas representatives to focus your efforts on flood relief measures to help those affected by recent flooding and to put measures in place to avoid the recent tragedy experienced in central Texas in the future.

Please do what Texans do best which is to care for one another and to do so with integrity. I urge you to sidestep political pressure for redistricting. You have addressed redistricting well in 2021 according to our great state's rules and procedures laid out by our state Constitution. The pressure to submit to federal political influence is not what we Texans are about. Please stand strong and true for Texas.
