Message:

Stop trying to further disenfranchise people by doing even more gerrymandering. Y'all approved gerrymandered districts in 2021 to maximize the number of districts that could be won by Republicans, and now that you realize it won't be enough, you're trying to squeeze out an extra Republican seat or two. You know the right thing to do is to create an Independent Redistricting Commission like 8 other states have done, but if you're not going to do this, you should at minimum just leave the damn districts alone until 2030. There's no justifiable reason to redistrict mid-decade.
