This redistricting is an obvious and illegal power grab. The absolute corruption is astounding - the public declaration from trump to abbott and the instant capitulation by the texis legislature is absolutely pathetic.

The only logical explanation for all of these politicians to completely ignore the will of their constituents, is that they do not have any concern about losing the next election. Which would only exist in a world where the elections themselves are compromised.

The 2024 general election data in Texas shows statistical anomalies that should be investigated and paper ballots must be used in 2026 and beyond.
