Hello.

I'm commenting on this redistricting form to voice my concerns of blatant corruption in stealing seats for the Republican Party. I'm a proud life long Texan who believes in fair and free elections which I thought the GOP also fought for. However, the actions of this committee is leaving a stain on our country and our beautiful state's history.

I've read and seen the "reasons" for this committee to call for another redistricting but we all know it's to steal seats. And forcing democrats to move forward with the meeting by using the lives lost in the recent floods as the reason to have the special session! Absolutely disgusting. Even if the redistricting passed you will not win the midterms, Texans are feeling the failures of our botched leadership. Our representatives and senators no longer have us in mind, Dems and Reps are finally agreeing that congress and all of our current leaders are a joke.

Voting and acting in local politics is becoming a trend and y'all know that. That's why you're scrambling to regain power but republicans are still slipping from having that control. We can see it, your policies contradict the will of the people. However, our current leaders can still do the right thing, acknowledging that rigging the map is wrong and letting us Texans vote for who we want. Or continue with gerrymandering, keep your corrupt legacy, and continue to be an embarrassment for the Republican Party to just lose anyway in the end.

Love,
A changed and proud Texan.
