Message:

I am strongly against any redistricting that is done to benefit just one political side. That is not what democracy is about. Every Texan, no matter their background or political beliefs, deserves fair representation. When districts are redrawn to give one party an advantage, it silences entire communities and damages public trust.

Texas is changing and becoming more diverse, and our maps should reflect the people, not political agendas. This process should be fair, transparent, and focused on keeping communities together, not dividing them for political gain. We deserve better than gerrymandering.

Please do what is right for all Texans, not just one side.
