Message:

I'm disappointed that redrawing the Texas congressional district map is being prioritized over disaster relief for the recent floods in Texas and improving our emergency systems. It feels clear that the focus on redistricting right now, in the middle of a decade when it was already done in 2021, is an insensitive political power grab. We need fair representation free from the abuse of gerrymandering by politicians trying to hand-pick their voters. Please consider the struggling Texans who need support, and prioritize their needs over selfish political games. Preserve our democracy. Thank you.
