Message:

As a Texan who's lived here my entire life with family who has lived here for generations, what you all are planning to accomplish with this redistricting is morally wrong and racial gerrymandering. You are trying to push more republicans into positions of power and cause an imbalance of power in a country where it should be even. If you all truly cared about the people of Texas, you wouldn't be trying to disguise this stunt by sneaking it in with your attempt to put in measures to warn Texans of incoming flood disasters (which you should've done YEARS ago...). Texas should not be redistricted AGAIN and gerrymandered even more than it already is just to fuel your selfish political agenda and interests instead of the interests of the people.
